

St. Margaret's

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

April 26, 2026 ✠ 10:30 a.m.

Welcome to St. Margaret's Episcopal Church

St. Margaret's is a warm place to renew faith in God, care for one another, and thrive in a diverse, LGBTQIA-affirming and inclusive community. Visitors, please fill out a CONNECT card hanging on the backs of the pews.

In Person or Online, There's a Place for You Here

St. Margaret's worship services are livestreamed for our online congregation. By participating in this service, you acknowledge that you may be visible on live or archived video. If you are uncomfortable about the possibility of appearing on video, please see an usher to be reseated in a more private area.

About Today's Service

Easter is entirely about hope and joy: that nothing separates us from the love of God—not even our sins, not even suffering, and not even death itself. Easter is a season, not simply a day. The Great Fifty Days of Easter are an extended celebration of the Crucified and Resurrected One, the Incarnate Word of God we know in the person of Jesus of Nazareth. Those of us who identify as followers of Christ are baptized into his death and into the hope of Resurrection. What this mystery really means is the most important question of our faith journey—especially as we explore it together in this holiest season of the year.

Land Acknowledgement

We gather at St. Margaret's on land that once belonged to the Nacotchtank people, who were forcibly removed from their land by white settlers and devastated by diseases they introduced. We recognize that this loss is not distant history, and the ongoing legacy of colonization continues to adversely shape our communities. We grieve their loss and repent of this history. We vow to carry forward the Nacotchtanks' legacy of respect for the land, the waters and all of God's creation. May our stewardship reflect gratitude, justice, and care; and may we live in right relationship with the earth and one another.

The Collect for Purity

The Collect (pronounced cah-lect) for Purity is a distinctively Anglican prayer for the start of worship and has been included in every Book of Common Prayer since its first publication in 1549. It is translated from an 11th century Latin prayer.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Savior. Amen.

Gloria in Excelsis

Mathias

Literally meaning "Glory in the highest," this is a short hymn of praise to the Trinity. Its opening verse is based on the song of the angels to the shepherds at the time of Jesus' birth, as reported in Luke 2:14. It is known as the "Angelic Hymn." It is also known as the "Greater Doxology," distinguishing it from the Gloria Patri, the "Lesser Doxology." It dates from the fourth century, and was the canticle for the morning office in the Apostolic Constitutions. The Gloria in Excelsis is typically used in Episcopal parishes as part of the entrance rite during non-penitential seasons.

The Collect of the Day

The collect is the prayer appointed for each day that "collects" or captures the theme of the day or season of the Church year. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the scriptures for the day.

God be with you. And also with you. Let us pray.

O BELOVED JESUS, you are the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear your voice we may know you who call us each by name and follow where you lead; this we pray in the name of the holy and undivided Trinity, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

We Proclaim and Respond to the Word of God

The First Lesson

Acts 2:42-47

This reading is from the Acts of the Apostles, a book in the New Testament written by the same author as the Gospel of Luke. Acts tells a dramatic story of the birth and expansion of the church from the time of the ascension of Jesus until the arrival of Paul in Rome.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Those who had been baptized devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 23

Dominus regit me Chant: Edward Cuthbert Bairstow (1874-1946)

The psalms are poems from the Old Testament (or Hebrew Scriptures). They cover every mood of humanity's relationship with God and one another.

The Choir sings

The Holy One is my shepherd; *
I shall not be in want.

You make me lie down in green pastures *
and lead me beside still waters.

You revive my soul *
and guide me along right pathways for the sake of your Name.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I shall fear no evil; *
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *
you have anointed my head with oil,
and my cup is running over.

Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, * and I will dwell in the house of God for ever.

The Second Lesson

1 Peter 2:19-25

This reading, taken from the New Testament, is typically from a letter (epistle) to the early Church, the Acts of the Apostles, or the Revelation to John.

A reading from the first letter of Peter.

It is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps.

"He committed no sin,
and no deceit was found in his mouth."

When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand in body or spirit.

The Gospel Lesson

John 10:1-10

This reading is taken from one of the four gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), which depict the life, teachings, death, resurrection, and ascension of our Savior Jesus Christ. We stand as we are able for the Gospel reading to show the particular importance placed on Jesus' words and actions.

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to John.

Glorify to you, O Christ.

Jesus said, "Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers." Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.”

This is the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Praise be to Christ, the Word.

The Affirmation of Faith

A Celtic Creed

This creed has been passed down from the Iona Abbey on the Isle of Iona in Scotland. Founded by St. Columba in 563, since 1938 the Abbey has been cared for by the Iona Community, an international ecumenical order which continues the tradition of Iona Abbey as a place of worship.

We believe in God above us,
maker and sustainer of all life,
of sun and moon, of water and earth,
of male and female, and in between.

We believe in God beside us,
Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh,
born of a woman, servant of the poor,
tortured and nailed to a tree.
A man of sorrows, he died forsaken.
He descended into the earth to the place of death.
On the third day he rose from the tomb.
He ascended into heaven, to be everywhere present,
and his kingdom will come on earth.

We believe in God within us,
the Holy Spirit of Pentecostal fire,
life-giving breath of the Church,
Spirit of healing and forgiveness,
source of resurrection and of eternal life.
Amen.

Please kneel or sit.

The Prayers of Our Community

The intercessor gives voice to the prayer requests submitted online by members of our community worshipping in person or on Zoom. To submit your own prayer request, please use the QR code in the back of this bulletin.

Jesus Christ is risen today, our triumphant holy day. Alleluia! So let us pray to God, saying, "Risen Christ, to you we give undying praise."

Heavenly One, for us you endured the cross and the grave. When we were yet sinners, you redeemed and saved us. May we sing your eternal praises everywhere we go.

Silence

Risen Christ, to you we give undying praise.

Incarnate Love, where hearts are wintry, grieving, or in pain, call forth new life by your touch. Bring forth life in the barren places of your world.

Silence

Risen Christ, to you we give undying praise.

Resurrected One, bring our neighbors from sadness into joy. Where they live in darkness, brighten their lives with a day of splendor and give to all that peace that passes human knowing.

Silence

Risen Christ, to you we give undying praise.

Risen Christ, you have opened heaven's gate. You have freed us from the power of sin and death. Through your resurrection, you give us the promise of resurrection to a holier state. Bless the dying and the dead.

Silence

Risen Christ, to you we give undying praise.

And continuing with prayers submitted by members of our community...

Silence

Risen Christ, to you we give undying praise.

The Celebrant adds this concluding collect

Sun of Righteousness, so gloriously risen, shine in our hearts as we celebrate our redemption, that we may see your way to our eternal home, where you reign, one holy and undivided Trinity, now and for ever. Amen.

The Peace

The peace of Christ be always with you. And also with you.

The People stand to share signs of peace with one another and then are seated.

The Offertory

Having gathered, listened to the Word of God, affirmed our faith, and shared in the peace, we are prepared for the drama and miracle of the Holy Eucharist. At the offertory, we gratefully offer back to God some of what God has given us, symbolically in the bread and wine, and in the money we give.

Don't have cash for the collection plate? Text MAGGIE and your donation amount to 73256 to give to St. Margaret's using your text messaging (e.g., MAGGIE $50). Anthem at the Offertory

Surrexit pastor bonus (sung in Latin) Orlando di Lasso (1532-1594)

The good shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep, and deigned to die for his flock, alleluia.

We Make Eucharist Together

The Great Thanksgiving

The word Eucharist comes from the Greek for "thanksgiving." In the Great Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus himself asked us to do: thank God and recall all that God has done for us in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The Great Thanksgiving—or Eucharistic Prayer—is a long prayer with four parts. Each of these four parts corresponds to a different action of Jesus at the Last Supper, where he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread and wine as sacraments of his body and blood. We begin the Great Thanksgiving with the Sursum Corda, meaning "Lift up your hearts" in Latin.

God is with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Holy One.

Let us give thanks to the Most High our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Mother Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Mathias

The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is the hymn of praise that never ceases before God and is based on Isaiah 6:3.

Ho - ly, ho - ly,
 ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est Bless -ed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

We recall God's acts of salvation history. The celebrant says the "Words of Institution" that Jesus said at the Last Supper. At the Memorial Acclamation we remember Christ's death, resurrection, and promise to return at the end of time. During the prayer, the Holy Spirit is invoked to bless and sanctify the gifts of bread and wine.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. For in these last days you sent Jesus to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O God: We remember Christ's death, we proclaim Christ's resurrection, we await Christ's coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Savior of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through whom we are acceptable to you, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Blessed Margaret and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Savior, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray, each in our own language,

Our Father/Mother/Creator who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre nuestro
que estás en el cielo,
santificado sea tu nombre;
venga a nosotros tu reino;
hágase tu voluntad,
en la tierra como en el cielo.
Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día;
Y perdona nuestras ofensas,
como también nosotros perdonamos
a los que nos ofenden.
No nos dejes caer en la tentación,
y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino,
tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria,
ahora y por siempre. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread in silence.

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Invitation

These are the gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ lived, died, and rose again for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who seek God and a deeper life in Christ are welcome to receive Holy Communion.

- Please come forward as directed by the ushers and kneel (or stand in front of the kneelers, as you are able). Those who wish to have Communion brought to them at their seat should notify an usher.
- The bread is freshly baked by a member of our community. Gluten-free wafers are also available; please make your need known to the minister.
- Please receive the bread in open and outstretched hands. Respond to receiving the bread by saying, "Amen."
- To receive the wine, sip from the chalice, which will be guided gently to your lips by the minister. Please note that intinction (dipping the bread into the wine) is not permitted. Respond to receiving the wine by saying, "Amen."

'My dear, then I will serve.'
'You must sit down,' says Love, 'and taste my meat.'
So I did sit and eat.

Prayer after the Communion

God of Life,
who for our redemption gave your only-begotten One to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection
has delivered us from the power of our enemy:
grant us so to die daily to sin,
that we may evermore live with Christ in the joy of the risen life;
through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Please be seated.

Announcements

Clergy and lay leaders greet the congregation and invite people to connect with our parish community, learn about the faith, or to volunteer in service. Please see the weekly bulletin insert for more information.

The Blessing

God the Creator, by whose love Christ was raised from the dead, open to you the gates of everlasting life. Amen.

God the Incarnate One, who in bursting from the grave has won a glorious victory, give you joy as you share the Easter faith. Amen.

God the Holy Spirit, who filled the disciples with the life of the risen Christ, empower you and fill you with Christ's peace. Amen.

And the blessing of God almighty, Source of all Being, Incarnate Word, and Holy Spirit, be with you all and remain with you always. Amen.

We Go Forth in the Name of Christ

As the celebration ends, we are charged to reach out beyond our own church to the world around us.

SERVE

- ✝ Mustard Seed Charlie's Place Street Outreach | Wednesdays | 5:00 p.m. Join our deacon, the Rev. Francisco Serrano, for weekly street outreach to our neighbors experiencing homelessness in Dupont Circle. Volunteers will meet at St. Margaret's and then bring beverages, snacks, and other gestures of love to Dupont Circle to deepen relationships with our community. Questions? Email Francisco at serranofrancisco388@gmail.com. To help fund this ministry, please give to the Rector's Discretionary Fund by check or online at stmargaretsdc.org/give. Be sure to select "Rector's Discretionary Fund" in the dropdown menu.

GIVE

- ✝ Hospitality Fund. Make a donation to help cover the costs of food, décor, and supplies for parish-wide events. Visit stmargaretsdc.org/give and select "Hospitality Fund" in the drop down menu.
- ✝ Refugee Sponsorship. St Margaret's is sponsoring the nine-member Azami family, who have come to the US from Afghanistan. Their transition here is all the more difficult since the reduction of federal refugee support. If you would like to help the Azamis, please donate via Realm (<https://onrealm.org/StMargaretsDC/-/form/give/now>) and select Afghan Refugee Support in the dropdown menu. The family has made wonderful progress, with two of the adults having jobs (one part-time) and the five children in school. However, life continues to be challenging. Through our ongoing relationship, St Margaret's is able to provide the Azamis with essential assistance, while letting them know how we welcome them as neighbors and new Americans.
- ✝ Charlie's Place. Our Gift Registry is available online. Consider making a gift that would greatly impact our clients. If you have questions or would like to volunteer, email Ellen Silva (esilva@stmargaretsdc.org) or Reggie Cox (rcox@stmargaretsdc.org).

- ✚ 1894 Society. St. Margaret's 1894 Society recognizes those who have graciously named our beloved parish as the beneficiary of a planned gift. These donors' lasting and thoughtful contributions will help ensure St. Margaret's can fulfill her mission as a warm place to renew faith in God, care for one another, and help build a diverse, LGBTQIA-affirming and inclusive community. To learn more about planned giving, making a long-term and special financial commitment to the church and joining the 1894 Society, please talk to our Rector (richard@stmargaretsdc.org). The 1894 Society brochure and Intended Giving Card can be found at stmargaretsdc.org/give.
- ✚ Donate. If you would like to make a donation to St. Margaret's, visit stmargaretsdc.org/give, text MAGGIE and your donation amount to 73256, or mail a check to the Parish Office: 1830 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20009.
